The Must Cover. It won't get lost in a drawer.

Here's a brand new shiny idea to protect your Texas Instruments 99/4A home computer. You can't fold it up and put it away in a drawer. And that's good. Because although your home computer has very few natural enemies, expose it to enough dust and watch it do all kinds of nasty things it was never designed to do.

The MUST COVER is a quality product made of high grade, clear, hard plastic, precision molded to fit your 99/4A perfectly. And unlike those soft plastic covers, the absolutely clear MUST COVER even makes your computer look better.

Protect your investment and save yourself the hours of frustration that a dust-fouled-up computer can cause. Just drop it in place and never worry about dust again. Get the new MUST COVER—a must for your TI 99/4A.

4. That at the request of SECURED PARTY, DEBTOR will join with SECURED PARTY in executing one or more Financing Statements pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code in form satisfactory to SECURED PARTY and will file the same in all public offices wherever filing is deemed by SECURED PARTY to be necessary or desirable;

5. That DEBTOR will not sell or offer to sell in bulk or otherwise transfer the Collateral in bulk or any interest therein without the written consent of SECURED PARTY provided, however, that DEBTOR shall be entitled to sell the Collateral in the ordinary and usual course of business;

SECURED PARTY may act as attorney-in-fact for DEBTOR in obtaining, adjusting, settling and cancelling such insurance and endorsing any drafts;

7. That DEBTOR will keep the Collateral free from any adverse lien, security interest or encumbrance and in good order and repair and will not waste or destroy the Collateral or any part thereof; that DEBTOR will not use the Collateral in violation of any statute or ordinance; and that SECURED PARTY may examine and inspect the Collateral at any time, wherever located;

Expenses or retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling or the like shall include SECURED PARTY'S reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses.
